105th Birthday Party

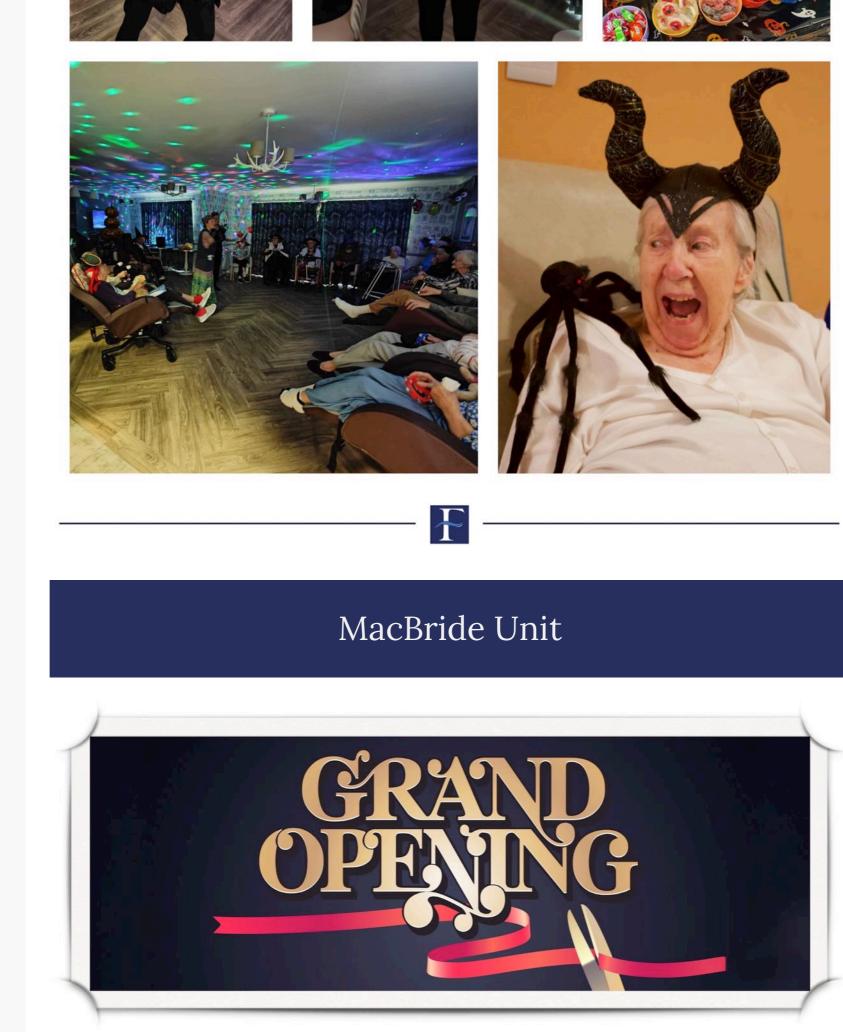

On Thursday, 31st October, the staff all dressed up in costumes as we hosted our fabulous time. We enjoyed a sing-along and even enjoyed some dancing.

annual Spooktacular party. We welcomed back Viki Philp, who made sure we had a

We are proud to announce that The Fleet now has a new dementia community, the local town council, Royal Naval College, the medical practice, and our friends from McBride Unit. The opening day celebrations welcomed representatives from the Purple Angels. Head of Unit, Sarah Pinhorn, and Fleet Manager, Marc Chudley, were delighted with the response from the community.

Christmas Preparations

Festive Fun

We have been super busy with festive preparations as we have decorated The Fleet

Care beautifully. This year, we have had a competition between the floors to all take charge of their own trees and come up with individual concepts. Drake have gone for religious and colourful, Nelson have opted for Candyland, Ramsay have gone with nautical and MacBride have taken inspiration from local charity Purple Angels and themed theirs around dementia.
